

WCLA

NATIONAL CHAMPIONSHIP

NAPLES, FL

MAY 12 - 15

WELCOME

Dear WCLA Athletes, Coaches, and Fans,

Welcome to the 2026 USA Lacrosse Women's Collegiate Lacrosse Associates (WCLA) National Championship. This is one of the most exciting weeks of the year, where teams from across the country meet in one place to display their passion, grit, and love for the game. Whether you are competing, coaching, or cheering from the sidelines, you are part of something special, and we are thrilled to have you here.

This year carries extra meaning as we celebrate some incredible milestones. Women's lacrosse in the United States is marking 100 years of history, and the WCLA is celebrating its 25th championship season, with one pause along the way. What started as a small but determined movement has grown into a national force, now featuring 137 club teams across 45 states and nearly 2,500 student athletes. That is a powerful testament to the commitment of this community and the unique place the WCLA holds in growing the game at the collegiate level.

What makes the WCLA so special is not just the numbers, but the spirit. This is a community built by players who choose to keep competing, who balance academics and athletics, and who continue to elevate the game through leadership, camaraderie, and a genuine love of lacrosse. The energy, sportsmanship, and competitiveness you bring to this championship embody everything that makes our sport great.

As you take the field this week, take a moment to appreciate what you have built together. Every practice, every road trip, and every game has led to this moment. Compete hard, support one another, and enjoy every second. These are the memories that will last long after the final whistle.

We are riding incredible momentum as a sport, and events like this are at the heart of it. With eyes already looking ahead to the 2028 Los Angeles Olympics, the growth of women's lacrosse continues to accelerate, and each of you is playing a role in shaping that future. Thank you for being part of this journey. Let's make this championship unforgettable.

With excitement and appreciation,

TOURNAMENT NOTES

Boston College's Ally Maguire scored unassisted 36 seconds into overtime to lift the Eagles to an 8-7 victory over UCLA in the 2025 Division I championship game. Last year's thriller was the first championship game decided in overtime since 2008.

» WELCOME TO THE SUNSHINE STATE

The USA Lacrosse Women's Collegiate Lacrosse Associates (WCLA) National Championship, launched in 2001, is making its first-ever appearance in the state of Florida. Now in its 26th year, the championship event has had many different homes through its history, including a stop in Wichita for the past two years. St. Louis served as the event's initial location, hosting the first four years (2001-2004). Other stops have included Minneapolis (2005), Dallas (2006), Denver (2007-08), Scottsdale (2009-11), Colorado Springs (2012-13), Virginia Beach (2014-15, 2019, 2023), Winston-Salem (2016), Salt Lake City (2017), and Round Rock, Texas (2018, 2022)

» THE TOP SEED

UC Santa Barbara, 16-1, earned the No. 1 seed in the Division I bracket after holding the top spot in the national rankings for the entire season. UCSB had its 16-game winning streak snapped with a narrow 8-7 loss to UCLA in the Western Women's Lacrosse League (WWLL) championship game but earned an at-large berth for the Nationals on the strength of nine wins over ranked opponents during the season. The Gauchos are making their 15th overall appearance in the WCLA national tournament, but still chasing its first WCLA title, coming closest in 2013 when finishing as the national runner-up.

» CHAMPIONSHIPS FAVOR THE FAVORITES

While WCLA history reflects favorably on No. 1 seeds in the Division I tournament, with the national champion emerging from the top line seven times in the past 11 years, that's far from the only path to the title. For proof, teams need to look no further than the past two years, with Boston College Club claiming the 2025 championship as the tournament's fifth seed and UCLA winning its first championship in 2024 as the third seed. Defending champion BC (10-0) also won back-to-back titles in 2022 and 2023 as the No. 1 seed and is back in the tournament this year as the number two seed.

» THE FAVORITE — DIVISION II

In the Division II bracket, Denver Club (10-1) earned the top seed as champion of the Rocky Mountain Women's Lacrosse League (RMWLL) and returns to the championship tournament for the 12th time overall. The Pioneers won the national championship in 2016 and 2017 and have the most national tournament appearances among all Division II programs. Last year's D-II national runner-up Montana State, also from the RMWLL, is the number two seed.

» EXPERIENCE HELPS, BUT NOT REQUIRED

Eleven of the 16 Division I teams in this year's tournament were also qualifiers for last year's championship event in Wichita, including each of this year's top eight seeds. There's only one first time qualifier in 2026, No. 9 seed Auburn, which won the Southeast Women's Lacrosse League (SWLL) championship. The Tigers defeated both Florida and Clemson to capture this year's SWLL crown and claim the league's automatic berth. No. 3 Florida Club and No. 6 Clemson Club both received at-large invites to the Nationals, as did No. 8 seed Georgia, giving the league four representatives in Naples.

» WELCOME BACK FRIENDS

Aside from first-time qualifier Auburn, No. 16 seed Oregon State has had the longest drought between championship tournament appearances. As this year's champion of the Northwest Women's Lacrosse League (NWWLL), the Ducks return to Nationals for the first time since 2014. Two other teams are also returning this year after extended absences, with No. 15 Penn State Club back for the first time since 2018 and No. 11 Cal Poly returning for the first time since 2019. Despite Cal Poly's recent dry spell, the Mustangs have a storied WCLA history, having won the national championship in each of the event's first seven years, 2001-2007.

TOURNAMENT NOTES

» D-II RETURNEES & FIRST-TIMERS

In Division II, eight of this year's 12 teams also played in the championship last year, while two teams – No. 7 seed Tampa and No. 9 Charleston – are making their first national tournament appearances. Three others – No. 2 Montana State, No. 3 UC San Diego and No. 10 Fullerton College – are back this spring after making their debuts in Wichita last year. No. 1 seed Denver Club is easily the most experienced D-II program, returning to the national tournament for the 12th time overall.

» TRYING TO RUN IT BACK

After winning its third WCLA title last year in Wichita, No. 2 seed Boston College will try to become just the fourth program to claim back-to-back D-I championships. Cal Poly set a high standard by winning the first seven WCLA championships (2001-2007). Colorado State then won back-to-back in 2010 & 2011, and BC achieved the feat most recently, in 2022 & 2023. In addition to going back-to-back for the second time if they win in 2026, BC would also claim its fourth crown in a span of five years. The Eagles would also match Colorado State with the second most all-time titles (4), trailing only Cal Poly.

» THE FORMAT

The Division I and Division II formats are slightly different due to the variance in the number of teams. The Division I format calls for a traditional single-elimination bracket to determine the champion. Following each team's first loss, it moves into the consolation bracket to determine its final placement. In Division II, the teams are arranged into four pools of three teams each. A round-robin within each pod determines the qualifier that advances into the semifinal round. Single elimination is utilized in the semifinals and final.

CSU San Marcos capped an undefeated 2025 season by defeating Montana State in the Division II championship game to claim its first WCLA title and finish with a 13-0 record.

ABOUT THE WCLA & OFFICIALS

The mission of the USA Lacrosse Women's Collegiate Lacrosse Associates (WCLA) is to promote the growth of women's lacrosse nationwide. Specifically, the WCLA strives to provide an infrastructure in which collegiate clubs will compete and eventually crown a national champion.

The WCLA first staged a national championship under the USA Lacrosse umbrella in 2001, and the leadership of the WCLA has been the driving force behind the development of women's college club lacrosse since its formation. Leadership opportunities exist on the local, regional, and national levels as WCLA is a representation of teams at all levels.

Nearly 150 teams compete in nine leagues throughout the country, and the WCLA sponsors play at both the Division I and II levels. The WCLA helps publicize women's college club lacrosse by selecting All-Americans and All-Academic honorees each year, conducting weekly ranking polls, and conducting a national championship at the Division I and II level. The WCLA also provides resources to new and developing club teams to help them become successful.

The large majority of WCLA teams are student-run, and in addition to gaining valuable experience in administration, the WCLA players have a history of giving back to the sport by becoming coaches and/or officials.

TOURNAMENT HISTORY

Cal Poly won the inaugural eight-team WCLA national tournament in St. Louis in 2001, beginning a Mustang dynasty that featured seven consecutive national championships.

The USA Lacrosse Women's Collegiate Lacrosse Associates (WCLA) National Championship was first conducted in 2001, providing college club teams a consistent and true structure to compete nationally. Prior to 2001 there were sporadic championships conducted through other organizations.

Cal Poly won the initial eight-team national tournament in St. Louis in 2001, beginning a run of seven consecutive national championships. The Mustangs defeated Navy in the first championship game, and knocked off Air Force, UCLA, and Santa Clara in successive years to extend its championship streak.

The tournament expanded from eight to 12 teams in 2004, and then to 16 teams in 2005 when the event moved to Minneapolis. Cal Poly survived harsh weather conditions, beating Colorado State in the 2005 title game. The Mustangs then defeated Michigan in the 2006 final, and Navy, again, in 2007 to win their seventh straight championship.

The Cal Poly dynasty finally ended in 2008, with Colorado State rallying for an 8-5 overtime win over the Mustangs in the championship game in Denver. Cal Poly still leads all WCLA programs with 36 all-time tournament wins.

Virginia Tech was making just its third WCLA tournament appearance in 2009 and came into the event carrying a No. 6 seed, but it mattered little as the Hokies marched to the title.

Colorado State returned to the top spot in 2010, pulling off four straight upset victories as the No. 11 seed to capture its second championship. The Rams defeated Cal Poly, 6-4, in the final. Meanwhile, Cal Berkeley Club captured the inaugural Division II championship, beating Loyola (Md.) Club in the title game.

Colorado State made it two-in-a-row and won its third overall championship by defeating UCLA in the 2011 final. In the Division II final, Chapman edged Towson Club, 9-8, to complete an undefeated season.

Tenth-seeded UC Davis Club surprised top-seeded Colorado State in the 2012 championship game, denying the Rams a third consecutive national title. In Division II, North Carolina Club edged Towson Club, 9-8, marking the second consecutive one-goal loss for Towson in the championship.

Colorado State became the first No. 1 seed to win the championship in six years by claiming the 2013 title to cap an undefeated season. James Madison also had a lot to celebrate by winning the Division II crown in its first-ever tournament appearance.

In 2014, the tournament venue moved to the East Coast for the first time and Pittsburgh became just the second eastern team to capture the title. Top-seeded Pitt held off upstart Boston College, the No. 15 seed, in the championship game to claim its first title. In Division II, North Carolina Club capped an undefeated season by rallying for a 10-9 victory over defending champion James Madison in the final.

There was nothing unlucky for Michigan in 2015 as the Wolverines made their 13th WCLA appearance and captured their first championship by defeating Virginia Tech in the final. In Division II, No. 1 seed Duke capped an undefeated season by registering an 8-3 win over Utah in the championship game.

The 2016 tournament yielded two more first-time champions as Georgia claimed the Division I title, beating Minnesota in the final game. The No. 1 seed Bulldogs had made nine previous trips to the tournament without reaching the semifinal round. In Division II, Denver Club worked overtime to claim its first title, defeating Utah 11-10 in sudden-death. Utah finished as the national runner-up for the third time in four years.

The tournament moved westward again in 2017, hosted in Salt Lake City. No. 7 seed Delaware Club captured the D-I title by upsetting No. 1 Pittsburgh, 13-11, in the championship game. Denver Club also made tournament history by becoming the first back-to-back champion in the history of the Division II championship. The Pioneers defeated Loyola Maryland in the final and finished the year with a 13-game winning streak.

Michigan claimed its second Division I crown in 2018, capping an undefeated season with a win over BYU in the final game. In Division II, Loyola (Md.) Club earned some revenge by dethroning Denver Club, 14-3, in the title game to claim its first championship.

In 2019, Pittsburgh defeated Delaware, 15-11, to capture its second Division I title, while Loyola downed Navy, 13-6, to claim its second straight Division II crown.

Following a two-year hiatus (2020 & 2021) due to the Covid-19 pandemic, the championship returned in 2022 with Boston College Club winning the Division I crown and Loyola (Md.) claiming its third straight D-II title. BC repeated as champion in 2023, completing a second straight undefeated season, while New Hampshire Club captured its first Division II title.

In 2024, the WCLA crowned a pair of first-time champions, with longtime contender UCLA finally breaking through to win the Division I title, while Vermont claimed the D-II title.

A familiar name returned to the top in 2025 as BC claimed its third Division I championship in four years, defeating UCLA in an overtime thriller. CSU San Marcos claimed the D-II crown, going wire-to-wire as the top ranked team all season and finishing with a perfect 13-0 record.
